The Property of Married Women

We publish below an important decision given by Judge Deady, yesterday, in the U. S District Court

Circuit Court, U S District of Oregon

A M Starr, vs A Hamilton, et al—Action to recover possession of real property.

In pursuance of the stipulation of the parties heretofore filed this cause being tried by the court without the intervention of a jury, the court now finds the facts to be as follows

First, That the defendants, Alexander Hamilton and Christina Hamilton were intermarried in the year 1851 at Portland Oregon and that the relation of husband and wife has ever since subsisted between such defendants

Second, That on July 1, 1859, the defendant A Hamilton, together with certain other persons made his promissory note to the plaintiff herein for the sum of one thousand dollars with interest at the rate of three per cent in per month thereon, and that afterwards, on March 21 1865, in the Circuit Court for the county of Clackamas State of Oregon the plaintiff herein, in a suit against the defendant A Hamilton, and the others aforesaid, upon said promissory note duly recovered a judgment therein against the said defendant, A Hamilton, for the sum of two thousand five hundred and ninety nine dollars

Third, That on July 27, 1866, a writ of execution was duly issued out of the Clerk's office of the court aforesaid, against the property of the defendant, A Hamilton, and directed to the Sheriff of Multnomah county, State of Oregon and that in pursuance of the command of said writ, the Sheriff aforesaid, did, on July 30, 1866 duly levy on the real property described in the complaint of the plaintiff herein, and that said Sheriff did, on September 4, 1866, in pursuance of said levy, duly expose to sale at public auction, the real property aforesaid, at which sale the plaintiff herein became the purchaser thereof,

Fourth, That on March 26, 1867, the court aforesaid made an order confirming the sale aforesaid in all respects, and that afterwards on June 6, 1867, the Sheriff aforesaid in pursuance of the aforesaid order and proceedings, duly executed and delivered to the plaintiff herein, a deed, whereby he conveyed to said plaintiff all the right, title and interest, which the defendant, A Hamilton, had in and to the real property aforesaid, on September 4, 1866, or at any time after wards.

Fifth, That prior to the marriage of the defendants as aforesaid, Christina Hamilton, inherited from her mother a piece or parcel of real property, situate in the State of Missouri, and that in July, 1857, she sold and conveyed the same to her brother for the sum of one thousand dollars, receiving from her said brother at the same time the additional sum of two hundred dollars, in payment for the prior use and occupation, by her said brother, of said real property.

Sixth, That on February 13, 1858, in consideration of the sum of five hundred dollars paid by Christina Hamilton, Daniel H. Lownsdale did, by his deed duly executed and delivered, convey to said Christina Hamilton the real property, described in the complaint of the plaintiff herein as block two hundred and fifty, to have and to hold the same to her and the heirs of herself by the defendant, A Hamilton, forever, and that the said five hundred dollars paid to Daniel H. Lownsdale as the consideration for the conveyance of block two hundred and fifty as aforesaid, was a part of the twelve hundred dollars, paid by the brother of Christina Hamilton as aforesaid.

Seventh, That on September 5, 1865, in the consideration of the sum of seven hundred dollars paid by Christina Hamilton, Moses H Young and Francis, his wife, did, by their deed duly executed and delivered, convey to Christina Hamilton, and to her heirs of her body, by her husband, A Hamilton, the real property described in the complaint of the plaintiff herein as lots three, five and six, block two hundred and fifty three, to have and to hold to her and to her heirs by her then husband to her and their own proper use and benefit and behoof forever, free from all control of her said husband.

Seventh, That on August 9, 1864, in consideration of the release to Thomas Robertson, by Christina Hamilton, of her right of dower in blocks two hundred and fifty one and two hundred and fifty two, in the town of Portland, State of Oregon, the said Thomas Robertson and Mary, his wife, did, by their deed duly executed and delivered, convey to said Christina Hamilton, and to her heirs of her body, by her said husband, A Hamilton, the real property described in the complaint of the plaintiff herein, as lot four in block two hundred and fifty-three, to have and to hold to her said heirs as aforesaid, to her and their own separate use, benefit and behoof forever, free from all control of her said husband

Eighth, That the defendant Christina Hamilton, did not receive from any source or person other than her husband, during her marriage with the defendant, A. Hamilton, any money or property other than the sum of twelve hundred dollars as aforesaid, and that of said sum on or about the time of receiving the same, she loaned seven hundred dollars to the defendant, A Hamilton, who invested the same in his own name in real property, namely, block two hundred and fifty one and two hundred and fifty two aforesaid, which property was subsequently and prior to the date of the deed aforesaid from Thomas Robertson and wife, taken on execution and sold to satisfy a debt of said defendant, A Hamilton.

Ninth, That on March 28, 1866, the defendant, Christina Hamilton, in pursuance of an act of the Legislative Assembly, approved June 4, 1859, did duly execute and cause to be recorded in the proper office in the county of Multnomah, State of Oregon, a declaration of her intention to hold, possess and enjoy in her own right and as her separate property, all the real property mentioned and described in the complaint of the plaintiff therein.

Tenth, That the defendants, A Hamilton and Christina Hamilton, on September 4, 1866 were in the possession of the premises described in the complaint of the plaintiff herein, and have continued in the possession of the same up to the present time, and that the monthly value of the use and occupation of Block 250, from September 4, 1866, was fifteen dollars, and of the lots in Block 253, twenty dollars per month

And as a conclusion of law from the premises aforesaid, the court finds that the plaintiff has no estate or interest in lots three, four, five and six in Block two hundred and fifty three described in the complaint herein, and is not entitled to the possession of the same or any part thereof, but that the same is the separate property of the defendant Christina Hamilton, and was so since the date of the conveyance of the same to her as aforesaid, and further that the plaintiff since September 4, 1866, was seized of an estate for the life of the defendant A. Hamilton, in Block two hundred fifty, described in the complaint herein, and that he is entitled to the possession of said block during the continuance of such estate, as against the defendant, herein; and that said plaintiff is entitled to recover off the defendant A Hamilton, the sum of one hundred and forty seven dollars for the use and occupation of said block since September 4, 1866, together with the costs and disbursements of this action, to be taxed, and that he should have judgment accordingly

OPINION OF THE COURT

By virtue of the Sheriff's sale, on September 4, 1866, and the subsequent deed to the plaintiff, in pursuance of the order confirming such sale, the plaintiff acquired all the estate or interest which the defendant, A Hamilton had in the real property described in the complaint at the time of such sale

What then was the interest, if any of A. Hamilton in the property in question on September 4 1866?

Block 250 was conveyed to the wife, Christina Hamilton, on February 13 1858 At that time the effect of marriage upon the property of the wife was regulated and prescribed by the rules of the common law By the common law the husband, by reason of the marriage, became seized of a freehold estate in all the lands in which the wife had an estate of inheritance, (5 Barb 476, 481 2 Kent 105 2 Ba Ab 695 705 16 John, 115 3 Barb. 622 5 Barb 181) This freehold estate, which the common law gave the husband in the lands of his wife, was his absolute property, as much as though it had been conveyed to him by his wife before marriage It could be seized and sold on execution by the creditors of the husband. (2 Kent, 110)

But it is claimed on behalf of the defendant, Christina Hamilton, that the Constitution of this State has worked a change in the law in this respect, which is applicable to this case.

The Constitution (Art. XV, Sec. 5), provides—The property and pecuniary rights of every married woman at the time of marriage, or afterwards acquired by gift, devise or inheritance, shall not be subject to the debts or contracts of the husband and laws shall be passed for the registration of the wife's separate property."

Independent of the Constitutional provision, the property of the wife is not necessarily her separate property or estate "The separate estate of a married woman is that alone of which she has the exclusive control and benefit, independent of the husband and the proceeds of which she may dispose of as she pleases, and its character as such must be imparted to the property by the instrument (or power otherwise) by which she is invested with such right to it " (Cord's Rights of Married Women, sec 225)

The instrument by which block 250 was conveyed to Christina Hamilton, did not in any degree impart to it the character of separate property It is but an ordinary deed, conveying the property to her and heirs by her husband, and contains no terms from which it can be inferred that it was the intention of the grantor to exclude the husband from the benefit and control of it For aught that appears in the deed, the property was conveyed to the wife, subject to the general marital rights of the husband as then prescribed and defined by law.

Looking then to the nature of the instrument by which block 250 was conveyed to the wife, and the law as it stood at the time of such conveyance, there can be no doubt, but that the husband then became seized of a freehold estate in the same, which could be taken on execution by his creditors The fact that the purchase money was derived from the sale of the wife's real property in Missouri, which she inherited from her mother, does not affect the question That was not her separate property It was her general property and subject to the marital rights of her husband, at the time of the marriage in 1853 Moreover, by the sale of it in 1857, it was converted into personal property—money—and there by became the absolute and exclusive property of the husband.

The Constitution went into force on February 14, 1859 What effect did it have upon the rights of the husband in this property? The Constitution makes provision for the registration of the wife's separate property, but does not declare in express terms what shall be considered such separate property The contemplated registration is not for the benefit of the wife, but for the protection of the public Still it is evident that the Constitution intended to change the law on the subject of the wife's property, and to change in favor of the wife This being the case, it is the duty of the courts to give effect to such purpose so far as it can be ascertained with reasonable certainty. If the Constitution had said—"The property and pecuniary rights of every married woman, etc ," shall be deemed to be her separate property, or shall be held by her as her separate property, no doubt could arise as to the legal effect of the language employed This would have imparted a particular character to her property, so far as enumerated in the Constitution, however acquired, the effect of which would have been, to have excluded her husband from all control over it or benefit in it The language actually employed in the Constitution is—"Shall not be subject to the debts or contracts of the husband" Taken in connection with the following clause, providing for the registration of the wife's separate property, I think these words ought to be construed, so far at least as third persons are concerned, as equivalent to a declaration that the property enumerated in Sec 5, shall be the separate property of the wife If the wife's property is not to be "subject to the debts or contracts of the husband," he is thereby precluded from any control over it, and if he has any benefit or interest in it, it is beyond the reach of his creditors, for it is not "subject to his debts or contracts " This seems to be the conclusion of the Supreme Court of the State, (Brummel vs Wenner, Rep 1866, p 42) Any narrower construction than this, would defeat the evident intention of the Constitution to change the law concerning the effect of marriage upon the wife's property in favor of the wife If, notwithstanding the provision in the Constitution, the husband, by reason of the marriage, is still invested with a freehold estate in his wife's lands, then it may be well said, as maintained by the plaintiff, that such estate—the property of the husband—may be taken on execution by the creditors of the husband, without conflicting with the provision in the Constitution concerning the property of the wife Such a construction would leave the subject as it stood at common law, without giving any effect to the Constitution whatever For these reasons I think that the property of the wife, as enumerated or described in the Constitution, ought to be considered her separate estate in the technical sense of that term—property over which the husband acquires none of the marital rights known to the common law.

At the time the Constitution went into force and from the date of the conveyance to the wife, the husband had a freehold estate in Block 250. This was a vested right. Could the Constitution take it away from him and give it to the wife, or should it be so construed?

The act of April 7, 1848, of the New York Legislature, for the more effectual protection of the property of married women, so far as it related to existing rights of property, in married persons, was declared unconstitutional and void by the courts of that State (5 Barb 474. 2 Kernan 202 3 Kernan 238 10 Smith 375). These decisions maintain, that the rights of the husband in the property of the wife at the time of the passage of the act, were vested rights to property, of which he could not be deprived, except by due process of law—forensic trial and judgment But this conclusion was put upon the ground of the prohibition contained in the Constitution of the State of New York " No person shall be deprived of life, liberty or property, without due process of law," while in the case at bar, the enactment under consideration is a part of the Constitution itself—the supreme law of the land

Whether the people of a State in the formation and adoption of a constitution are omnipotent or not is an unsettled question. Probably they ought to be held so, in the same sense in which the English parliament is deemed omnipotent—as having power to " do every thing that is not naturally impossible," (1 Black Com 161) They are for the time being the supreme, sovereign power of the State, and the Constitution is their direct, definite and permanent will, expressed in the form of a law

But I do not deem it necessary to pass upon this question, because I am satisfied that the provision in the State Constitution was not intended and does not operate retrospectively. It is a general and salutary rule of the common law, that " no statute is to have a retrospect beyond the time of its commencement (6 Ba Ab 370) , and this rule applies in the construction of a constitution as well as a statute. In the construction of statutes, courts are to take "as a leading guide, * * the presumption that all laws are prospective and not retrospective" (7 John, 486) , and Kent (Ib 562) says, " The very essence of a new law is a rule for future cases "

The language of the Constitution is in no sense retrospective It declares a new and important rule of property, as to married persons, and this rule, at least in the absence of express words to the contrary, should be construed as only intended to be applied to " future cases " I understand that the learned Justice of the Supreme Court of the State, from the fourth district, has, on the circuit construed this provision of the Constitution as being prospective. I am not aware of any decision of the Supreme Court of the State on the subject

But I think the last clause of Sec. 10, Art. XVIII, of the Constitution confines, the operation of this provision to future cases. Sec 10 is the saving clause of the new Constitution It declares that the property and rights of the territory and political subdivisions thereof shall remain " as if the change of government had not been made, and private rights shall not be affected by such change " The freehold estate of the husband in Block 250 was vested in him before and at the time this change was made The enjoyment and ownership of this estate was then a private right in the husband—a right of property—and as such is protected by this saving clause, even if there was any doubt as to the true construction of Sec 5 of Art XV

The registration of this property, on March 28, 1866, so far as block 250 is concerned availed the wife nothing In fact she had no separate property in that block to protect by registration. The plaintiff having succeeded by purchase to the estate or interest of the husband in block 250, is entitled to the possession of the same The duration of this estate is for the life of the husband, for although at common law, this estate might terminate with the death of the wife for want of issue born alive, yet by our statute the husband is tenant by the courtesy 'although such husband and wife may not have had issue born alive ' (Gen Laws, 717) As the defendants wrongfully withhold the possession from the plaintiff he must have judgment against them accordingly, and against the defendant, A Hamilton for damages for the use and occupation of the property since September 4, 1866, according to the findings of the Court

As to the lots three, four, five and six in block 253, the facts are different They were conveyed to the wife after the constitution went into force and by force of the Constitution and the registration of March 28, 1866 must be held to be the wife's separate property, unless the following objections of the plaintiff or some of them are sufficient to take the case out of the Constitution

1 The Constitution can only apply to future marriages, for by the obligations of the marriage contract entered into before the Constitution the husband was entitled to a freehold estate in all estates of inheritance which the wife might acquire during coverture

2 The property in these lots was acquired by purchase, and property acquired by the wife after marriage, is not declared to be separate property by the Constitution, unless acquired by gift, devise or inheritance

3 If these lots can be said to be acquired by gift, it was the gift of the husband to the wife, and on grounds of public policy, the Constitution be so construed, as to exclude such gifts from the category of separate property

The first of these objections raises the question, long mooted, as to whether marriage is a contract within the provision of the National Constitution which forbids any State from passing a law impairing the obligation of a contract I do not think this objection well founded Marriage has its inception in contract—the assent of the parties—but when established, it becomes a relation. This relation is in no sense a contract. It is rather a civil institution, beyond the control or caprice of the parties to it, to be governed and regulated by law This law and not contract regulates and prescribes the rights of the parties in the property of each other, and until these become vested interests, the law may modify them from time to time, to suit the convenience and wants of society, or to promote the relation or to protect the parties to it In my judgment the Constitution should be construed, as applicable to marriages in existence when the Constitution went into force, so far as the after acquired property of the wife is concerned) (See Whelo vs White, 5 Barb, 477, Snyder vs. Snyder, 3 Barb 623)

The second objection is not free from difficulty Strictly speaking real property can only be acquired by purchase or descent "Descent is the title, whereby a person, upon the death of his ancestor, acquired the estate of the latter as his heir at law." (B. Dic. 448) The title to real property acquired in any other manner than by descent, is title by purchase. The phrase in the Constitution "by inheritance, is in legal parlance the exact equivalent of "descent." Title, or acquisition by gift or devise, is in law a title by purchase The Constitution cannot be construed to prevent the wife in any case from holding as her separate property, that which she acquires during marriage by purchase in the legal sense of that term It expressly includes acquisitions by gift or devise and in law these are both deemed titles by purchase

But I suppose the Constitution could not be construed to include property acquired by the wife by purchase in the popular sense,—that is when the title was obtained for a valuable consideration moving directly from herself, unless the purchase consist as a matter of fact in the exchange or investment of already acquired separate property for some other.

However, upon the facts, in my opinion, the title to these lots was not acquired by the wife by purchase in the popular sense. It must be presumed that the consideration proceeded directly from the husband. The wife had no separate property out of which to make the purchase The seven hundred dollars which she loaned (as she calls it) her husband in 1857, was already his property by virtue of the marriage The consideration paid for these lots being just seven hundred dollars, it is evident that as between the husband and wife the purchase was made for the purpose of returning to the latter the remainder of the money that he had acquired by the sale of her Missouri property In this view of the matter the transaction is substantially a gift to the wife from the husband

The third objection assumes that a gift from the husband to the wife is against public policy The language of the Constitution is unqualified—property acquired by gift As the law stood before the Constitution, the husband could give property to his wife, though for other reasons it was necessary to resort to the intervention of a trustee It should be remembered also, that in this case, there is no question of fraud or rights of creditors The plaintiff claims as the purchaser of the husband, and only acquired the rights of the latter as against the wife, Where a husband in solvent condition and in good faith makes a gift to his wife, I know of no rule of law or principle of public policy that can be invoked to declare the same void

Besides, whatever may have been the law or public policy, I do not see how any court can presume to limit or restrict the language of the Constitution, and hold that the unqualified words—acquired by gift—shall have effect only in the diminished sense,—by gift from some person other than her husband This would be legislation and not construction—and legislation on mere grounds of public policy a matter for the law maker to determine and not the courts

I am of the opinion, that the lots in block 253 are a gift from the husband to the wife and that by force of the Constitution and the registration of March 28, 1866, they became the separate property of the latter. This being the case, the plaintiff acquired nothing by his purchase of the husband's interest at the Sheriff's sale, for the simple reason that the latter had no interest in the property—at least no interest which could be the subject of levy and sale on execution

In the consideration of lots in block 253, I have omitted to make special mention of lot four The consideration for the conveyance of this lot to the wife was her release of her right of dower in certain other property of the husband's which had been taken and sold on execution. This right of dower was a mere contingency, depending upon whether the wife survived the husband or not The estate of the tenant in dower is neither acquired by gift, devise or inheritance The contingent right to dower in the lands of the husband, which the wife has during the life of the latter is a mere expectancy and cannot be called her separate property—if it can be termed property at all Money derived from the sale of such right becomes the property of the husband. When the husband joined with the wife in the release of the right of dower to Robinson, in consideration that Robinson, then conveyed to the wife lot 4, I think he appropriated the proceeds or value of the right of dower to the purchase of that lot, and made a gift of it to the wife

It may also be noticed, that by the terms of the conveyance, granting the lots in block 253 to the wife, it is provided that she shall hold them to her own separate use and benefit and free from the control of her husband Whether this form of conveyance was not sufficient to make this the separate property of the wife independent of the provision of the constitution, I do not decide The question was pressed upon the court by the counsel for the defendants, but the conclusion to which I have arrived renders it unnecessary to consider it

DEADY Justice

"Denver," says the Rocky Mountain News, "flourished for seven years without rats, but last year a few made their appearance —how or whence they came is a mystery Probably they emigrated across the plains in somebody's freight wagon Now they are becoming quite numerous in certain parts of the city, and very annoying and destructive "

The causes of good and evil are so various and uncertain, so often entangled with each other, so diversified by various relations, and so much subject to accident which cannot be foreseen, that he who would fix his condition upon incontestible reasons of preference, must live and die inquiring and deliberating

TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 25, 1867.

An Illustration of the "Eternal Principles."

Of late years the policy of the Democratic party has been to make the Judiciary the supreme arbiter of all constitutional and political questions. The reason of this is found in the fact that the influence of that party in this department has for some years been more considerable than in any other branch of the Government. In former times it was quite different; and quite different also was then the policy of the Democratic party touching the question of supremacy among the several departments of Government which exist under our Constitution.

We have heretofore adverted to the views which Jefferson held in regard to the Supreme Court. It was his belief and his practice also, that each of the three departments, legislative, executive and judicial, had the right to interpret the Constitution and its own powers and duties thereunder, for itself. For many years it was therefore held by the Democratic party that the decisions of the Supreme Court could not bind either the President or Congress. The causes which gave rise to this opinion and this policy were, as before hinted, that the Democratic party, for many years after it came into possession of two of the branches of Government, was still excluded from the third. The judges had been appointed by Washington and were therefore opposed to the Democratic party; and Jefferson and his successors, finding that they could not be controlled in favor of the policy which had been inaugurated by the political revolution of 1799, neutralized the influence of the Supreme Court by making the other two branches of the Government supreme. To the day of his death Jefferson regarded the Supreme Court with contempt and detestation, and used repeatedly to say that the Judiciary were the sappers and miners of the Constitution, working to overthrow it. The opinion of the Democratic party regarding this tribunal never changed until the old judges were gone, and Democratic partisans appointed to the bench. Then the Supreme Court became in their eyes a most venerable institution whose sacredness increased more and more as their party afterwards gradually lost its hold upon the other departments of the Government.

Thus it has been a habit with that party to make supreme any branch of the Government which has happened to be exclusively in its hands. First, it held that the Supreme Court was an insignificant thing whose decisions on political or constitutional questions were entitled to no consideration from the other departments. This was when the Court could not be moulded to suit Democratic opinions. Next, it held that the Supreme Court was the final arbiter in every question that could arise under the Government. This was after the political complexion of the Court had been changed by Democratic appointments. And now, there are indications that the Democracy are going back to their old principles of hostility to the Supreme Court. The reason for this policy is that they cannot hope to obtain control of that tribunal for a long time to come. The New York World says on this point:

[illegible] is becoming propitious for the Democratic [illegible] party of its time-honored faith [illegible] subject with an [illegible] vigor and [illegible]. The [illegible] age of the conservative Judges renders it probable that none of them will be left by the time we have a Senate which [illegible] Democratic appointment. [illegible] purpose that the Supreme Court has an absolute ascendency [illegible] the Republicans will be very likely to take us at our word when we have driven them from the [illegible] departments, and when the Supreme Court [illegible] the people [illegible].

This is truly admirable as a specimen of Democratic reasoning and honesty. It explains very fully the [illegible] which that party has pursued in [illegible] the Supreme Court. When it is composed of men who will do the bidding of their party Democrats make that tribunal the supreme [illegible]. When it is composed of judges of a different [illegible] gentlemen discard it altogether, and insist on going back to the time-honored faith of the Democratic party on this subject." They exalt or degrade the Court according to their ability or inability to wield it for partisan purposes. And these are some of the eternal principles of Democracy.

The Release of Davis.

Very many of the Union journals of the East express the deepest indignation that the arch-traitor of the rebellion has been set at liberty with the positive certainty that he will never be punished or even brought to trial. Not one of the leading Union journals we have seen,—even of that class which are known to be extremely "conservative" in their tendencies and which have steadily insisted on the exercise of leniency and magnanimity toward the South,—speaks of Jefferson Davis in any other way than as a criminal, a guilty traitor, whose crimes deserve the fate which the law prescribes for such offenders as he. From this number we of course except the New York Tribune, a paper which is governed entirely by a "maudlin philanthropy." The rest have not forgotten that treason is a crime, and do not hesitate to declare it such. The following paragraph from the New York Herald very well represents the spirit of the Union press of the East on this topic:

The law is a dead letter. The blood of half a million of brave men has been spilt in vain. We are groaning under the weight of three or four thousand millions of debt for nothing. After having suppressed the rebellion at so much cost we virtually justify the rebels. We proclaim to the world that the war was nothing more than a work of gigantic duel for the trial of courage and skill, a bloody gladiatorial contest, with no other result than to burden us with an enormous debt and to make an exciting chapter in history. What weakness! What humiliation to this proud and powerful Republic! There is an underswell of indignation rising up among the people. They begin to ask what the war was for. They think of the myriads of slain heroes; they see numbers of the mutilated braves without arms and legs everywhere; they feel the weight of an enormous debt, and then reflect that all this was in vain and without result if treason be not a crime or cannot be punished. What will be the consequence of such disappointment and indignation? Is it not reasonable to expect they will begin to think of repudiating a debt created for no purpose and resulting in this way? Is not the imbecility of the Government, and we mean by the Government the Executive, Congress and the Judiciary, leading us to this? We can expect no other alternative. Nor could we object to it if the war is so fruitless and the Government is made to rest on no better foundation. If there be no law, why pay so dearly for the pretence of supporting it.

An Eminently Fit Nomination.

The Democrats, as well as the Republicans, are casting about them for a candidate for the Presidency. No doubt it will gratify everybody to know that the question as to who the Democratic candidate will be, is about settled already. The New York Day Book, (which claims to have the largest circulation of any Democratic journal in the United States) nominates as the candidate of its party in 1868, a no less eminent Democrat than Jefferson Davis. That leading organ of Democratic opinion (the Day Book) declares its inability "to see how the Democratic party could do better than to nominate him (Davis) for President." We think the Day Book is entirely right. No man has done so much or suffered so much for the principles of that party as has Jefferson Davis. No man has served it more ably, and few have served it so acceptably. Simple gratitude demands from his party this mark of consideration. The Day Book kindly completes the ticket for its Democratic friends by putting Cowan of Pennsylvania on for Vice President. That paper is decidedly of opinion that this would make a ticket that would "sweep the North, restore the Union, and inaugurate the era of good feeling." The Day Book is certainly on the right track. Who next unfurls the Democratic ticket? The Democracy of Oregon will go it "straight." Will their organs here second this movement? Will they do their duty? They have covertly supported Davis for a long time; let them now by all means seize this opportunity to pronounce openly and emphatically for their champion!

SHOOTING AFFRAY.—The Walla Walla Statesman of the 21st says:

On Saturday afternoon last, Mr. Elihu Ward, while on his way home, near the foot of the mountains, got into a difficulty with a neighbor named Robert Bean, which resulted in the latter drawing a pistol and shooting Ward through his left arm, near the shoulder. The ball shattered the bones of the arm, and caused a very dangerous wound. Mr. Bean subsequently gave himself up, and after a hearing before Justice Lacy, was held to bail in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance at the next term of the District Court. The wounded man, at last accounts, was doing well, and is in a fair way to recover.

The Southern rebels are making lavish contributions to Jeff. Davis and his family. They support him in luxury and leave his starving victims to Northern charity. A dime subscription for the eminent Democratic leader ought to be started at once among Northern Democrats so as to spread the payment among his admirers as widely as possible.

H. M. Hodgis, late Democratic candidate candidate for Sheriff in Walla Walla county contests the election of A. Seitel on the ground of alleged fraud. Seitel was the independent candidate, and the returns gave him seven majority.

Somebody advertises for agents to retail a work entitled "Hymenial Instructor." A contemporary adds, "The best hymenial instructor we know of is a young widow. What she don't know there is no use learning."

ITS VALUE IS INCALCULABLE.—For all diseases with which children are afflicted during the process of teething, MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP is a safe and certain remedy. It has stood the test of thirty years, and never known to fail. Cures wind colic, regulates the bowels, softens the gums, and allays all pain. Hostetter, Smith and Dean, Agents for the Pacific Coast.

FAMILY DYE COLORS.—After a careful and continuous use of the Family Dye Colors of Howe & Stevens for five years, the public with one voice have declared enthusiastically in their favor. It would be strange if they did not, for they are the only dyes in market people will buy. Firm, beautiful, easily used, safe—what wonder they are so popular. Sold by Smith & Davis.

FOR COUGHS AND THROAT DISORDERS, USE "Brown's Bronchial Troches," having proved their efficiency by a test of many years.

"I have never changed my mind respecting them from the first, excepting to think better of that which I began thinking well of."

REV. HENRY WARD BEECHER.

A SPLENDID INSTRUMENT.—We saw, yesterday, at J. L. Parrish & Co's something new in the way of an organ—a French instrument called the Organ Harmonium—invented by Alphonse Rodolphe. It is a very considerable modification of the organ as we have them from the American manufactories. It is provided with sixteen stops, each of which exercises a distinct and peculiar effect upon the tone. The bass stops are the Forte, Jeu Doux (soft, sweet) Basson, Clarion, Bourdon, English Horn; the treble stops are Expression, Tremolo, Scotch Bagpipe, Flute, Clarionette, Fife, Hautbois, Voix Celeste, Forte, and Knee or Full Expression. The effect of these stops in changing the tone is most surprising. For instance: from the flute to Voix Celeste with Full Expression, the tone changes from what sounds precisely like a soft flute, to the full grand harmony which we would expect from an Angel choir—what the name imports. The Key-Board is movable and can be adjusted to any key, to any instrument, or to the voice of any singer. Other changes are no less surprising. The instruments are of the most perfect workmanship and of the highest finish; have taken the first medals at all the great European Expositions. The prices range from $175, to $500. Persons in want of an instrument should call and see them, for it is impossible to get a correct idea of them, except from personal inspection. J. L. Parrish & Co., are sole agents for the Pacific coast.

A SEA WALL.—The great work of erecting a massive sea wall around the entire city front has been commenced in San Francisco. The sea wall once finished San Francisco will have as fine a harbor as any in the United States. KOHN & FISHEL, No. 91 Front street, have adopted a rule of trading that is as beneficial to them as the sea wall to San Francisco. They ask but one price for their fine and custom-made Clothing, Dry Goods, etc., and that price is so low that every person is satisfied that it requires no advertised figures to prove it, as facts are more positive proofs.

PERFECTLY SATISFIED.—Every one that visits BUCHTEL'S PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY, comes away perfectly satisfied with their bargains. The highest style of the art is reached in the beautiful Sun Pearls and Photographs.

THE GLORY OF MAN IS STRENGTH.—Therefore the nervous and debilitated should immediately use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU.

PRATT'S ABOLITION OIL!
For Abolishing Pain.

Cures Rheumatism, Paralysis, Neuralgia, Gout, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Diptheria, Colic, Cramps, Diarrhoea, Cholera Morbus, Pains in the Breast, Pleurisy, Sprains, Bruises, Weak, Swollen and Stiff Joints, Contracted Cords and Muscles, Lame Back, and all Aches and Pains.

This magic compound acts speedily and with certainty, and is unquestionably the best remedy in use for the above complaints. It is the best family medicine in the world, and one that it is dangerous to be without.

Circulars with full directions accompany each bottle.

Don't be put off with substitutes offered by interested parties. Call for and obtain PRATT'S ABOLITION OIL.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU gives health and vigor to the frame and bloom to the pallid cheek. Debility is accompanied by many alarming symptoms, and if no treatment is submitted to, consumption, insanity, or epileptic fits ensue.

TO PERSONS WHOSE HEALTH IS BROKEN DOWN. Every disease might unquestionably be prevented if nature were assisted to rally with that most wonderful of all invigorators,

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

When the flame of life wanes and quivers from exhaustion, administer this famous restorative. It will once more become steady and strong. In the debility which follows violent fever; in diarrhoea, dysentery, dyspeptic complaints and cholic; in the weakness consequent upon natural decay, or resulting from free living or over exertion, and also in those painful and too much neglected ailments to which ladies are exclusively subject, the Bitters never fail to give permanent relief. Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere.

HODGE, CALEF & CO., Agents, Portland, Oregon.

HELMBOLD'S CONCENTRATED EXTRACT BUCHU
Is the Great Diuretic.
HELMBOLD'S CONCENTRATED EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA
Is the Great Blood Purifier.
Both are prepared according to rules of Pharmacy and Chemistry, and are the most active that can be made.

Just Cause for Being Alarmed!—When a cough has been running for a long time, and you begin to feel a pain settling in on your lungs, attended with tightness across the chest, it is high time that you should awaken to the danger of the disease, which is fast running into fatal consumption. Now, before it is too late, use Allen's Lung Balsam, which will cure the disease, and all will be well with you. For sale by the Dealers in Family Medicine generally.

MANHOOD AND YOUTHFUL VIGOR are regained by HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral—the world's great remedy for Colds, Coughs, Consumption, and all affections of the Lungs and Throat.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU and IMPROVED ROSE WASH cures secret and delicate disorders in all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience and no exposure. It is pleasant in taste and odor, immediate in its action, and free from all injurious properties.

TAKE NO MORE UNPLEASANT AND UNSAFE REMEDIES for unpleasant and dangerous diseases. Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU AND IMPROVED ROSE WASH.

THE EXAMINATION YESTERDAY.—The examination at the Female Seminary, under the supervision of the Sisters of the Most Holy Name of Jesus and Mary, commenced the annual examination at the Academy yesterday. The afternoon exercises opened with an instrumental piece arranged for twelve hands on the piano, after which the following programme was presented:
Reading and spelling by the Juvenile class.
A beautiful recitation, "Who loves me best?"
Recitation of class in Geography.
Examination of class in Natural Philosophy.
Recitation, "My Garden."
Song and chorus, by four small students.
Examination of four classes in Grammar
Instrumental piece arranged for four hands.
Recitation, "Passing Away." Also "Oh Then Remember me."
Examination of class in Geography.
We were called away before the close of the afternoon exercises, but we could not fail to notice the excellent progress evinced on the part of the scholars, which was remarkable, and particularly where the natural kindness and affection on the part of the preceptress is considered. Every scholar acquitted herself with honor; hence we ought not to particularize, but we will be pardoned in mentioning the recitations of Miss Amanda Stitzel, who, for one so young, was remarkably good. We took occasion to scrutinize closely the several crayon sketches which adorn the room, among which, deserving mention, "Roslin Castle," crayon sketch by Miss Libbie Ranstead; "Saved," by Miss Olive Lyle; "Beauchamp's Mills," by Miss Maggie Burke; "The Pardon," by Miss Alice Harrison; "Ballynahinch," by Miss Irene Smith, one of the graduates of this term, also another, "God Show my Father." The latter was also the subject of a sketch by Miss Kate O'Neil, who had taken drawing lessons only since September. We may mention further, "The Infant Savior," by Miss Hattie Gleason; A Family Record and "Piety," by Miss Smith; "House of the Poet," a colored crayon sketch on mono chromatic paper, by Miss Mary McKay; "Hudson Bay Mill," by Miss Martha Field; "Cape Horn on the Columbia River," by Miss Anna Shelby. But we must not fail in this connection to mention the crayon sketch on monochromatic paper of "The Meeting of the Waters," by Miss Mann, about one third larger than the one so much admired at the fair a few months ago; also by the same artist an oil painting, "Furling the Sails," an album of paintings in water colors, "Past and Future," crayon, and a beautiful piece of needlework. Miss M. graduates this term and these several specimens of her skill do great credit to her talents. The more advanced classes will be examined to-day and to-morrow, and our citizens should by all means visit this Institution of learning and judge for themselves. It is certainly worth their while to become acquainted with the manner of instructing, and to notice the advancement of the pupils, in the several schools in our city.

THIEVES AGAIN.—We do not like to trouble the reader with our personal sufferings, but as a warning to others who have premises to protect, we must not omit to mention the fact that last evening the "prowlers" were again in the premises of the "local," but did not gain anything by their raid. A trap had been set, and when an entrance to the yard was made, certain "telegraphic" wires ... then caused an awful clatter of boards, which sent the intruders away in a hurry. We were up and out in an instant in entire dishabille, except our "under cotton," and made a sortie upon the supposed locality of the enemy, but they were beyond our pursuit. We slept soundly, certain that our slumbers would not be again disturbed, and we were not disappointed. We would advise men ... who desire to protect their premises from the ... of petty thieves, to procure a very large shot gun ... with a couple of bull-dogs, and if ... "fire," send the contents after any trespasser ... rifling their worthless carcass on your ... premises.

... COURT.—Charles Prior, sometimes an industrious ... working man, unfortunately conducted himself in such a manner as to bring his action in collision with a city ordinance, Judge Hoffman charged him $10 and costs, which he manfully paid and went his way. W. F. Merry—intending to be merry in fact as well as name took unto himself more "lightning" than was good for his head and he became intoxicated. While in that condition some body pilled him and disfigured his person very much, particularly his face, which presented a decidedly disagreeable appearance. The Judge's charge against this individual was $5 and costs, and when asked if he would pay he informed his hospitable host that he would ... it again in a dose of city jail, and straightway he ... off some place where he seemed desirous to go. This ended the morning's doings yesterday.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT—DEADY, JUSTICE.—Monday, June 24, 1867, the following proceedings were had: J. Seligman et al, vs Wm. Strong, administrator of the estate of E. Holbrook, action to recover money received as Attorney. Tried by the Court without a jury. Judgment for the plaintiff for $1,640 and costs and disbursements. A. E. Baldwin et al, vs. Wm. Strong, administrator of the estate of A. Holbrook Action to recover money received as attorney. Tried by the Court without a jury. Judgment for $1,200 and costs and disbursements. A. M. Starr vs. A. Hamilton et al. Action to recover possession of real property in Portland. Tried by the Court without a jury. Judgment for the plaintiff for the possession ... $250. We publish in another column the findings and opinions of the court in this case at length.

A TREAT.—Captain Baughman, the popular master of the Senator, "played" the "boys" yesterday. Having the Crosby in tow he necessarily was forced to take her to Couch & Flander's wharf. He backed out in the stream, suddenly changed his mind, and concluded that Couch & Flander's wharf was an exceedingly good place to stop at and discharge his freight,—then headed his boat for the wharf and in a twinkling she was made fast. Then commenced the "hubbub" at the P. T. Co.'s wharf, and each runner and drayman tried his best to "beat the other." For a time all was excitement, but they moved their base sufficiently quick to have all ... the ... of "bussing" the passengers, and their object was accomplished.

FROM FT. LAPWAI.—Capt. Lester of Ft. Lapwai is in ... and informs us that the Indians in that section had ... signs of dissatisfaction, arising from the non-payment of funds due them by Government. An attempt has been made to hold a council with them, but they were averse, at that time, to treating. Gov. Ballard, of Idaho, had returned back and came as far as Collfir, and not meeting Senators Williams and Corbett as he had expected ... his departure for Boise City. Mr. Hough, Gold Superintendent of Indian Affairs for the whole coast, ... to conclude, if possible, a treaty with the Indians, and it is confidently thought he has succeeded. ... informed us that one company of soldiers ... at the Fort.

IDAHO FLOUR SACKS.—We have been favored with a ... of paper flour sacks. We have submitted them to one of our principal flour merchants, and he thinks they will not answer for the purposes of exportation—... they would do for the city retail trade, but the ... of both cotton and linen sacks, precludes their ... The sacks now in use, to the retail purchaser, cost only about 16 cents, and every person can well afford to pay that price, as the sacks after being emptied are valuable for many purposes.

RECEIVED.—The Portland Library has just received the following new books: Recent Inquiries in Theology; Renan's Life of Jesus; Margaret Moncrieffe, the First Love of Aaron Burr; The Four Georges—By W. M. Thackeray; ... Towers—By Thrallope; The Rivals, or the Times of Burr and Hamilton; A Journey to Ashango-land—By DuChaillu, Famous Americans of Recent Times—By Parton; Madame Recamier's Memoirs—By Miss Luyster; Charles Lamb; A Memoir—by Barry Cornwall.

FROM ... —We yesterday saw Mr. Starr (brother of L. M. Starr of this city) who is engaged in business ... He informs us that the mining interests of the country are looking up and are very encouraging. The want of mills to develop the quartz interests is a serious draw-back, but are long that will be overcome, Mr. Gillingham, formerly of this office, had arrived at Lewiston and taken charge of the Journal, which hereafter will be issued under his direction.

CIRCUIT COURT—SHATTUCK, JUDGE.—Yesterday the Grand Jury ... ted bills of indictment for larceny against James Gill, Thomas Watson, alias George T. Bonnett, and against R. D. Langdon, for an assault with intent to kill. Both of the last named persons were arraigned and allowed until Wednesday morning next to plead. J. ... was appointed counsel for Bonnett.
State vs. James Gill—bond forfeited—Lewis Gill and ... sureties.

...—We learn that the "Honori Society" met at the ... Chamber last evening, and perfected arrangements, by appointing proper committees, etc., for a grand celebration of the coming Fourth of July, in character. Large turn-out may be expected, and as there are plenty of masks, etc., to be had in the city, "everybody and his wife" may expect to see himself and herself represented in the procession. Long live the "phunny fellows."

... A SWARM.—As Mr. Ireland, of the Enterprise, and Mr. Elijah Dennett, of this city, were passing down Front street, near Harrison yesterday morning, a buzzing was heard overhead, and on looking up discovered a swarm of bees. Mr Dennett happened to be carrying an empty cake, he dropped one and commenced pounding on the other, and that was thrown among the swarm. In a few minutes they were very snugly hived. Quick work.

FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION.—The Sunday School teachers and scholars of Ames Chapel are making preparations for celebrating the coming Fourth of July at some place, by having a pic-nic party. The Declaration of Independence will be read, orations delivered, etc. The neighboring Sunday Schools and other persons are invited to participate. The procession will form at nine o'clock A. M., and march to the pic nic grounds.

IT IS RUMORED.—J. B. Underwood, Esq., of Eugene City, is in town. Mr. U. was recommended by Senators Corbett and Williams for the position of Register in Bankruptcy, and will probably be nominated by Chief Justice Chase and appointed by Judge Deady to the position. If he accepts the duties of the office, he will necessarily be forced to take up his residence in Portland.

WASHINGTON GUARD BALL.—We acknowledge the receipt, in Mr. Crandall's name, of a complimentary ticket to the ball of the Washington Guard which takes place on the evening of the Fourth of July, 1867. No doubt this gathering of the gay and beautiful will lead to festivities enjoyable to a greater degree than common.

FESTIVAL.—The ladies of the First Spiritual Society of Portland, will give a Floral Festival, Tableau, and furnish supper, ... at Oro Fino Hall on Thursday evening, ... Tickets 50 cents, and can be obtained at the principal places of business in the city.

ON THE RISE.—The Willamette river and the Columbia are rising,—something not remembered by the oldest inhabitant as occurring after the 23d of June, in ...

GRAND CHAPTER ELECTION.—The following officers were elected, last evening, for the ensuing Masonic year: B F. Brown, G. H. P.; Jacob Conser, D. G. H P, S. F Chadwick, G. K.; A. B Richardson G. S, C. M Cartwright, G. Sec; J. H Couch, G Treasurer; B. F. Goodwin, G C. of H.; J B Lee, G P. S, A. G. Walling, G R A C, J H. Wythe, G. C

INSTALLATION.—This evening at the Oro Fino Hall at 8 o'clock, will take place the installation of the officers elect for the ensuing year, of the Grand Lodge of F & A Masons of the State of Oregon The imposing ceremonies will be public.

CAVED IN.—The ferry landing at the White House has been so undermined by the water and so much of the earth washed away as to render a landing of the scow ferry boat a difficult and somewhat dangerous task

TWO HOURS LATER.—The steamship Oriflamme was yesterday advertised to sail at 6 o'clock P M, but the time has been changed to 8 o'clock, giving shippers two hours more time.

TO DEPART.—A. S. Frambe, Principal of the Central Public School, departs on the Oriflamme for Santa Clara, California, to spend the vacation in the above school, among his friends

MASONIC INSTALLATION.—The installation of the officers of the Grand Lodge of Oregon will take place at Oro Fino Hall this evening at 8 o'clock. Ceremonies are public.

DISCHARGING.—The Live Yankee is discharging freight at the P. T. Co.'s wharf. Captain Wiggins thinks this schooner will remain in the Portland and San Francisco trade.

IN ERROR.—Our young friend S. A. Moreland, Esq., is to lend his services and assistance in the celebration at Needy, Clackamas county, instead of at Powell's Valley.

PRODUCE.—The Senator yesterday brought down the following freight: 3,000 sacks flour, 70 bales of wool, 16 bales of paper and 8 bales woolen good.

ARRIVED.—The steamer Okanagan from Monticello and way points, arrived yesterday afternoon, with an unusually large number of passengers.

RESERVED.—Space in the steamer Oriflamme sufficient for 75 tons of freight, principally salmon, has been reserved, to be shipped at Astoria.

TOO CROSBY.—This vessel made a trip yesterday up to Oswego to discharge 60 tons of lime rock and was brought back in tow of the Senator.

REMOVED.—Bills & Co, city draymen, have removed to and now occupy their new building, south-west corner of Stark and First streets.

HEAT.—Yesterday has the palm for heat, so far this season, the thermometer ranging at about 90° in the shade.

STOPPED.—The paper mill at Oregon City has ceased work for the present to repair machinery.

FLAGS.—McCormack has advertised flags and marks for the Fourth.

FLOUR SACKS.—It is thought that paper flour sacks will not answer for this section, owing to the extreme humidity of the atmosphere in winter, but Barman's sack coats and summer clothing is a success in all climates as well as in prices. If you don't believe it, go and try, and you will credit all you have seen in the papers. A No. 1 suits $9; white shirts $1 50; collars 12½ cts; rubber ties 50 cts; valises, $2 50, etc., etc., cheap for cash, corner Front and Morrison streets, Portland.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES CO ... This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.
PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.
Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water; invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels;
Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.
REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.
Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.
NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.
The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs
Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.
As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.
Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

Delirium Tremens.

We all have heard of this dreadful disease, but few of us have seen it, because its victims are kept out of view; and but very few have a knowledge of its awful variety Insanity in any form is awful, because it deprives man of his characteristic of humanity, but this disease adds to it all the terrors of a heated and excited imagination. One who has had the nightmare, in which he vainly endeavored to escape from thousands of infuriated spirits, can imagine what are the mental torments in this complaint, from which no friendly hand, with its gentle pressure, can awake them How many are running on to this ruin, some ignorant of the consequences, some careless of the result! Reader are you? Do you accept every invitation to drink with a friend, and several times each day self-invited? Is your appetite for wholesome food, which our nature requires, perverted and better satisfied with ardent spirits instead? Do you decline solid food and flatter yourself that you are avoiding the sin of gluttony, while in reality your stomach is poisoned against it? If so, you are on the right road to delirium tremens and it is not far before you.

The constitution of our nature requires the stimulus of wholesome food, and indulging the appetite for it produces no evil, but leads to health, strength and longevity.

The stimulus of spirits leads as surely to loss of appetite, disease, delirium tremens and death. No amount of wealth, or honor, or hight of position, can exempt you from this fatality.

Death is the final lot of us all. From dust we were made, to dust we must return. But how different will be the manner of our several descents. Some, beloved in their families, honored by their fellows, respected in the community, regretted by all, and their names live after them in their good deeds. The others first suffer loss of property, loss of character, loss of friends, and their misery terminates in this dreadful disease. Reader, do you see your fate reflected in the last? There is yet one remedy, and that is a sure specific. Cut the tap short off; set your foot squarely down, and say, "Not another drop."—St. Louis Democrat.

Finding of a Human Skeleton in Unfrequented Woods.—A dispatch, dated Poughkeepsie, May 14th, says:

Considerable excitement was caused at Cold Spring, yesterday afternoon by the arrival of two men there having in their possession a human skeleton, which they had found in an unfrequented spot in the woods near Garrison's station, Hudson River Railroad. When found, not a particle of flesh was to be seen upon any part of what remained of apparently the skeleton of a full grown man, to all appearances 35 or 40 years of age. Near the skeleton the men picked up a hat, somewhat damaged by the weather. In the hat was a penknife and a copy of the New York Tribune of July, 1866. Nothing else was found which would in any way give a clue as to who the man was or how he came to his death. On examining the jaw or inner side of the mouth, a beautiful set of false teeth were found, attached to upper and lower jaw, each fastened with heavy gold plate. Clinging to the feet were a pair of boots, which like the hat, were also damaged by the elements, but in all probability had been new but a short time previous to the death of the wearer. There is as yet not the least clue to identification. Some think it is the remains of a horse thief, for the following reasons: About one year ago, a coachman, who was in the employ of a gentleman whose residence is near Garrison Station, had occasion at a late hour of the night to take some friends of his employer to the railway station. After setting down his load he started to return, but was overhauled soon after by some unknown men and assailed undoubtedly for plunder. The coachman being armed, drew a revolver and fired several times at the gang, managing in the confusion to escape. The affair caused great excitement at the time, but it soon died out and was never spoken of again till to-day. Now it is believed that one of the coachman's shot took effect, and that the man who was wounded was dragged into the woods by his comrades and left to die, and that the skeleton found is his remains. The bones are now in the possession of the Coroner, who will retain them one week in order, if possible, to have them identified. If not claimed at the end of that time, they will be properly interred.

About Nitro Glycerine.—Some facts about this satanic agent will be interesting to miners. Notwithstanding, as Forbes says, it has "sent a good many souls to Heaven instanter who hadn't hoped to make the trip for years to come," inquisitive science has been continually experimenting with it until it is now used with as much safety as any such infernal power can be, and with great advantage over all other blasting compounds with respect to effectiveness and cost. A company has been formed in San Francisco to manufacture it. It is made of nitric acid and glycerine by mixing in vessels surrounded with ice to keep it at a temperature so low that there is no danger of explosion. It has hitherto been held in disrepute owing to the awful accidents that occurred in its transportation; but these have in every case resulted from an ignorance of its qualities or carelessness in handling it. It is now gaining in favor and coming into use. The Central Pacific railroad company has now used it a long time without accident. Experience has proved that fewer accidents occur with its use than with powder. They bring the ingredients and mix them at Dutch Flat for their own use. It works to entire satisfaction, and is said to be much more effective when used fresh. The advantages in its use are: Half the number of holes and of half the dimensions do from three to six times the execution. The effect is terrible; it shatters the rock below as well above the shot; it makes no smoke; it needs no tamping. The charge is poured into the hole; water-proof fuse is inserted, the vacant space is filled with water or loose sand, which answers for tamping; the charge is exploded by the fuse, as in the case of powder. One good charge of glycerine will heave out four times the amount of rock that twenty ordinary charges of powder will. It will greatly lessen the cost and facilitate quartz mining, particularly in running tunnels. It can be cheaply made on the spot where used, thereby avoiding the risk of transporting and stowing large quantities of explosive material.

The Necessity to Brand Treason.—A contemporary forcibly says:

It would be a most remarkable fact, if, after four years of civil war, posterity should be left in doubt whether it was or was not treason to wage such war against the United States The discussion may be carried on in newspapers and reviews a hundred years hence with even more vigor than it has been in our own day. The success of a war waged expressly against the theory of secession would be cited on one side; but, on the other hand, the fact that, after having achieved such a complete triumph, the Federal Government could not secure the conviction of a single man for treason, might be cited with at least equal force upon the other side. Why, it may justly be said, if the acts of Davis and Lee were treasonable, were they not convicted of treason. As far as General Lee is concerned, a sufficient explanation is given in the terms of his surrender; but in respect to Mr. Davis no such explanation is possible.

It may be said that the prospect of future rebellions is remote and visionary, and that no practical good can result from a conviction of treason, followed, as it doubtless would be, by a commutation of the sentence. But in this country theories and precedents have a value unknown in any other, even in England, from which we have learned to rely upon precedents. We can never expect to be entirely free from elements of danger, and for centuries to come we shall need, all the security which can be given by judicial expositions of our fundamental law. Not for purposes of vengeance, not yet for the mere satisfaction of a theory, but for the sake of removing all doubt as to the allegiance of American citizens and the perpetuity of our Government, we should desire to see Jefferson Davis fairly tried, and his guilt determined by a tribunal commanding universal respect.

Night work is reputed to be prejudicial to health. The N. Y. Tribune, in announcing the retirement of Mr. D. P. Rhoades from that concern, says,

"His connection with the Tribune, dates from the first number of the paper, April 10th, 1841, and since that time he has been in charge of the distribution of its editions, attending to the demands of agents and carriers, and sending the Express bundles—a difficult and important duty, which required him to be in the publication office at 9 P. M., and to remain until the entire edition of the paper had been delivered in the morning. With the exception of two years employed in the composing-room, Mr. Rhoades has been absent from his post but six nights in 26 years, and not once from sickness."

This goes to show that regularity of habits is of more importance than that rest should be taken during the darkness of the night.

John Bell, of Tennessee, is now living at his home, near the Cumberland Iron Works, a few hours steamboat travel below Nashville, on the Cumberland river. He is about seventy-three years old, badly broken down, physically and pecuniarily. Before the war he owned six hundred negroes, worth a quarter of a million at least, and was the principal owner in the large iron works at Chattanooga, which were burned in 1862. It is said that he is very much disgusted with politics.

Miss Leslie on Slang.—"There is no wit," says the author of the Behavior Book, "in a lady to speak of taking a 'snooze,' instead of a nap—in calling pantaloons 'pants,' or gentlemen 'gents'—in saying of a man whose dress is getting old, that he looks 'seedy'—and in alluding to amusing anecdote, or a diverting incident, to say that it is 'rich.' All slang words are detestable from the lips of ladies. We are sorry to hear a young lady use such a word as 'polking,' when she tells of having been engaged in a certain dance too fashionable not long since; but, happily, now it is fast going out, almost banished by the best society. To her honor, be it remembered, Queen Victoria has prohibited the polka being danced in her presence. How can a genteel girl bring herself to say: 'Last night I was polking with Mr Bell,' or 'Mr. Cope asked me to polk with him' Its coarse and ill sounding name is worthy of the dance. We have little tolerance for young ladies who, having in reality neither wit nor humor, set up for both, and, having nothing of the right stock to go upon, substitute coarseness and impertinence (not to say impudence), and try to excite laughter and attract the attention of gentlemen by talking slang. Where do they get it? From low newspapers or vulgar books? Surely, not from low companions? We have heard one of these ladies, when her collar chanced to be pinned awry, say that it was put on drunk—also that her bonnet was drunk, meaning crooked on her head. When disconcerted, she was 'floored' When submitting to a thing unwillingly, she was 'brought to the scratch.' Sometimes she did things 'on the sly.' She talked of a great vocalist 'singing like a beast.' She believed it very smart and piquant to use these vile expressions. It is true, when at parties, she had always half a dozen gentlemen about her, their curiosity being excited as to what she would say next. And yet she was a woman of many good qualities, and one who boasted of having always lived in the very best society."

The British Volcano.—Wilkes' Spirit of the Times has an article with this title, based on the great reform meeting in London which was held since the article was written. In the course of it the following occurs:

The nominal object of that meeting is to demand an extension of the right of suffrage; but the sense of oppression entertained by its component parts lies deeper than that text, while the smoldering purpose of its leaders has a broader scope. Its true object is "bread for the laborer," and "free trade in land;" and this latter object can only be accomplished by a thorough revolution. That such a revolution is at hand we are well persuaded. That it may come at any moment, from a people who have been entirely wrested of the land, and who have very little bread, no judgment can deny. There are many persons, nevertheless, who think that a country which has gone so long in safety, can still go on for any conceivable time in the same way; but this class of optimists do not reflect that there must always be a culmination to every practice—a time when every false social system like our old slave system of the South, being touched with the new fire of progress must explode. We think we are on the eve of this social and political explosion in Great Britain.

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER, after a thorough trial, by innumerable living witnesses, has proved itself THE MEDICINE OF THE AGE. Although there have been many medicinal preparations brought before the public since the first introduction of Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, and large amounts expended in their introduction, the Pain Killer has continued to steadily advance in the estimation of the world as the best Family Medicine ever introduced. It is an internal and external remedy. One positive proof of its efficacy is, that the sales have constantly increased, and wholly upon its own merits. The effect of the Pain Killer upon the patient, when taken internally in case of Cold, Cough, Bowel Complaints, Cholera, Dysentery, and other affections of the system, has been truly wonderful, and has won for it a name among medical preparations that can never be forgotten. Its success in removing pain, as an external remedy in case of Burns, Bruises, Sores, Sprains, Cuts, Sting of Insects, and other causes of suffering, has secured for it such a host of testimony, as an almost infallible remedy, that it will be handed down to posterity as one of the greatest medical discoveries of the nineteenth century.

U. S. GRANT,

Will make Two Trips per Week to the

CITY OF ASTORIA!

Carrying Passengers at $10, the Round Trip, (Meals Included.)

The Boat leaves Portland Wednesdays and Saturdays at 7½ A. M Returning leaves Astoria Thursdays and Mondays at 6 o'clock A. M.

Every person purchasing a Passenger Ticket will be presented with one of 999 Prize Tickets to be drawn on the 1ST DAY OF AUGUST, 1867, for the following Prizes:
Steamer U S GRANT, to be divided into 4 shares;
ONE BLOCK OF LOTS IN EAST PORTLAND, divided into 8 shares, or one lot to the share, viz. Lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8, Block 17, opposite the "New Columbian" Hotel, and at the terminus of the proposed Suspension Bridge;
ONE GOLD WATCH, worth $100;
150 CORDS DRY FIR WOOD, in 3 shares, to be placed on the Brooklyn Wharf.

The Steamer is 54 tons burthen, 62 horse power engine, propeller wheel, draft of water 5 feet. She is being thoroughly refitted and refurnished as a Passenger Boat. The Boat will be delivered in perfect order, free from all incumbrance and Warranty Deeds made for the real estate, to the persons drawing the same. Tickets can be had of C. P. FERRY, in Portland, where the money will be left on deposit till the prizes are drawn and delivered.

Any person having a claim against me, and wishing a ticket, can get an order for one by calling on me on board the boat. The person drawing the gold watch can have $100 in gold coin, if preferred

C. P. FERRY, Broker, R J LADD, ex-Sheriff, AL ZEIBER, U S. Marshal, and C S. SILVER, Merchant, of Portland, are the Committee and Judges to direct the Drawing of Prizes. The Prizes will be drawn before the 1st of August, if all the tickets are taken before that time

The above liberal offer is made to the traveling public to enable the subscriber to pay his debts, and not with any reference to speculation, as all the property is valued at much less than its cost, (the Steamer alone having cost $11,000), and the price for carrying passengers to Astoria being much less than the usual fare.

DR. HENLEY'S Fountain of Life!

GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER!

IN EVERY PROGRESSIVE SCIENCE PERIODS ARRIVE when a new direction is imparted to its course. These epochs proceed from discovery of new facts shedding a light which changes the whole aspect of the science. The present is an epoch of this kind, and this Great Remedy, now offered to the public, in connection with the theory on which it is based, is destined to effect an entire revolution in the treatment of the diseases of

by eradicating the disease entirely from the blood. The FOUNTAIN OF LIFE is composed entirely of vegetable extracts; it contains no Mercury or other mineral substance

The Proprietor and Discoverer of this Sovereign Remedy CHALLENGES THE WORLD to furnish anything, from the days of Æsculapius down to the present time, in the arcana of Medical Science, which can vie with or excel the intrinsic properties of this Great Blood Purifier Its value has been tested with the happiest effect in the most obstinate cases of Scrofula, that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians in the world. No matter what form the dreadful disease of SCROFULA and KING'S EVIL may have assumed, it can in no way be more safely and certainly arrested in its progress than by HENLEY'S GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER Thousands have been swept into their graves, who had they made a timely use of the FOUNTAIN OF LIFE, might now be enjoying the blessings of life and health It requires an article of real merit and intrinsic value to sustain itself During the stern ordeal of public experiment the FOUNTAIN OF LIFE has stood the test trial, and not been found wanting.

Dr. HENLEY guarantees to CURE any case of SCROFULA or KING'S EVIL in the world, and eradicate the disease entirely from the system, or no charge made—provided they will secure him his pay when they are cured.

FOR REFERENCE:

I would refer you to L L. Peck, of Portland, Oregon, and numbers of others, as to what a miraculous effect it had in a short time, in cases that had baffled the skill of physicians for years.

Portland, Oregon.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life, In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies are that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequents of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, tinging in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes; pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Doctor Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

Consultations FREE.

REDINGTON & CO's ESSENCE OF

JAMAICA GINGER.

This valuable preparation, containing in a highly concentrated form, all the properties of the Jamaica Ginger, has become one of the most popular domestic remedies for all diseases of the stomach and digestive organs.

As a tonic, it will be found invaluable to all persons recovering from debility, whether produced by fever or otherwise, for, while it imparts to the system all the glow and vigor that can be produced by wine or brandy, it is entirely free from the reactionary effects that follow the use of spirits of any kind.

It is also an excellent remedy for females who suffer from difficult menstruation, giving almost immediate relief to the spasms that so frequently accompany that period.

It gives immediate relief to Nausea, caused by riding in a railroad car, or by sea-sickness, or other causes. It is also valuable as an external application for Gout, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, etc

Sold by Druggists everywhere, and at wholesale by REDINGTON & CO., Agents for the Pacific Coast, San Francisco.

STOP THAT COUGHING.

SOME OF YOU CAN'T, AND WE PITY you. You have tried every remedy but the one destined, by its intrinsic merit, to supersede all similar preparations. It is not surprising you are reluctant to try something else after the many experiments you have made of nostrums foisted on the public as a certain cure, but is really the VERY BEST remedy ever offered for the cure of Coughs, Colds Sore Throat, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Consumption—thousands of people in California and Oregon have been already benefited by the surprising curative powers of

and with one accord give it their unqualified approbation. We now address those who are not yet acquainted with this, the great Panacea of the age, for the healing of all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, assuring you that has cured thousands and it will cure YOU if you try it.

This invaluable medicine is pleasant to the taste, soothing, healing and strengthening in its effects, entirely free from all poisonous or harmful drugs, and perfectly harmless in all cases.

Certificates from many of the residents of San Francisco accompany each bottle of

NEWELL'S Pulmonary Syrup.

GRAEFENBERG

Uterine Catholicon.

If faithfully used according to directions will cure any case of Diabetes, and greatly mitigate the symptoms of effects caused by a relaxation of the outlet of the bladder. It is a most successful remedy for Gravel and other diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, and for Female Diseases is unequaled. The Catholicon uniformly cures Prolapsus Uteri, Whites, all Irregularities of the Monthly Turns, Suppression, Incontinence of Urine, Tumors and Dropsical Swellings, and all Diseases of Pregnancy. The specific action of this medicine is immediate and certain upon the Uterine and Abdominal Muscles and Ligaments, restoring them to as healthy a state as those of childhood and youth, so that patients who have used the Graefenberg Company's Uterine Catholicon cannot sufficiently express their gratitude for the relief afforded.
